

Peppers Palm Bay

Long Island - The Whitsundays

BUNGALOW

Nestled amidst swaying palms fringing a secluded private beach, Peppers Palm Bay is an intimate tropical retreat rimmed by soft white sand and the jewelled turquoise waters of the Whitsundays.

The serene seclusion of Peppers Palm Bay is enhanced by 21 elegantly furnished cabins, bures and bungalows that are notable for what they lack – no television or telephones to disturb your soul restoring getaway from the pressures of everyday life.

Unwind at your own pace. Spend a lazy day by the freshwater pool and the heated spa or relax in a hammock.

For the adventurous at heart, try your hand at game fishing or explore 14 kilometres of walking trails across Long Island. These are just a couple of ways to add spice to your holiday.

Dine by intimate candlelight at the Beach Hut or delight in a delicious feast at La Riviera Restaurant. A seasonal menu celebrates regional delicacies and features a rich mix of flavours to delight the palate.

With an emphasis on indulgent pleasure, Endota Spa has an abundance of treatments to refresh body, mind and spirit in tranquil treatment rooms or outside under a clear blue sky. Divine.

Getting there is half the fun. Fly daily from major capital cities into Hamilton Island or Proserpine. Board Peppers luxury launch and cruise from Shute Harbour or take to the sky by helicopter or seaplane.
