Spend a fun filled day fishing the Tweed River

The southern Gold Coast embraces a laidback style – the surf and sand are the main attractions.

Mermaid Beach and the beaches from Palm Beach to Tugun are perfect for families and where you'll find stars of the surfing scene. Kirra is where hardcore surfers come and it's famous for having long, right-hand surf breaks. Burleigh Heads' patrolled beaches are lined with parklands and Burleigh Heads National Park's walking trails follow the coastline for pretty as a picture views.

The hinterland meets the beach at Currumbin where there's gentler surf, rock pools and Currumbin Creek. Currumbin Wildlife Sanctuary is here and the Currumbin Surf Club and Elephant Rock Café are perfect for a meal with a view or a lazy Sunday afternoon.

Coolangatta is famous for its proximity to the state border, a hotspot for its protected bays, surfing and fishing. There's no shortage of great food here; cafés and restaurants are many and varied. The sheltered, north-facing beaches of Greenmount and Rainbow Bay are also a popular choice for families. And if the surf's breaking off the point, you'll see surfers here and at Duranbah.

Along with the sun, surf, sand and river, Tweed Heads is the ideal base for a coastal holiday of fun, food, fishing and river cruising. The town links New South Wales to Queensland along the main street and is within a short drive to scenic picnic spots.
