Exploring the Southern Great Barrier Reef region is a rollercoaster ride of experiences.

Rockhampton is the gateway to the Capricorn Coast and Central Queensland's outback. Known as the Beef Capital of Australia you can enjoy the best steak and even attend the weekly rodeos. The historical architecture has captured the hearts of many visitors boasting the longest National Trust Heritage Street in Australia. Travel north and you're at the Capricorn Coast, including 13 beaches. Venture a little further to the rugged Byfield National Park, or head inland to discover Carnarvon National Park, with Aboriginal rock art and delicate ferns amidst towering sandstone cliffs.

Gladstone is the gateway to the Southern Great Barrier Reef and its islands, as well as a diverse rural hinterland. Base yourself in this harbour city and fill your days boating, fishing, dining and visiting galleries, museum and parks.

An untouched paradise awaits you at Town of 1770 and Agnes Water, where easy access to the Southern Great Barrier Reef is granted, and rugged coastline demands your appreciation. These country towns by the sea are tranquil, with still water and surf beaches and fantastic fishing. Take a day trip to Lady Musgrave Island for spectacular snorkelling and diving as well as a walk on the island to discover its unique flora and fauna.

Pack your bags and your sea legs for an adventure to Bargara, where you can visit the Mon Repos Conservation Park. Turtles are the big drawcard here, nesting and hatching before your eyes from November to March. Bargara has a series of rocky coves that protect the sandy beaches, perfect for a peaceful swim. A mere 15 minutes drive away is Bundaberg, home of the Bundaberg Rum Bondstore, Bundaberg Ginger Beer and the Hinkler Hall of Aviation.

With the contrast of sunbathing on secluded white beaches and swimming in aqua-blue waters, to scrambling through underground caves and exploring grounds where our ancestors once roamed, the Southern Great Barrier Reef region is the perfect place to unwind and let go, connect with nature, and each other.
