

Kununurra and Surrounds

Lake Argyle

Clear blue skies, rich red earth and rugged vistas, Kununurra is the eastern gateway to some of the Kimberley’s most renowned attractions. It’s the perfect base to explore World Heritage Listed Purnululu National Park and the Bungle Bungle Range.

Absorb the enormity of Purnululu National Park with a scenic light plane or helicopter flight, spend the day exploring the amazing red dirt beehive domes of the Bungle Bungle Range or for a true outback experience overnight at a wilderness camp within the park.

Scenic flights are a fantastic way to appreciate this vast landscape and its iconic landmarks. There’s the largest man-made lake in Australia, Lake Argyle. It’s so big some call it an inland sea. Then there’s the Argyle Diamond Mine – one of the largest open-cut diamond mines in the world.

You’ll find an amazing variety of flora and fauna along the Ord River, a popular spot for fishing or a scenic boat cruise.

Browse the art galleries showcasing local and Aboriginal artwork, treat yourself to a fine Argyle diamond from one of the diamond showrooms and be sure to experience a stunning sunset from Kelly’s Knob Lookout, the highest point in Kununurra.

From Kununurra an adventure down dirt tracks will reveal spectacular scenery of waterfalls, gorges and cattle stations. Your outback adventure awaits.
