

St Kilda and Surrounds

With great places to eat and drink, wonderful sea air, fabulous old buildings and a colourful past and present, everything tastes better in St Kilda.

Located just six kilometres from Melbourne you'll find the seaside playground of St Kilda. Famous for its sandy beaches, views to Port Phillip, boutiques, cafés and bars. Be spoilt for choice as you wine and dine your way around St Kilda. Have a bite and enjoy the great views at Republica, Riva or The Great Provider. Grab some fresh local seafood at Claypots Seafood Bar or enjoy a cool beer at Barney Allen's. Get your fix of shopping at the weekend Esplanade Markets or local culture at the well known Palais Theatre.

Considered to be the world's oldest amusement park, the Laughing Face at the entrance of Luna Park has welcomed generations of families for over 100 years. If you love the classics, try Australia's only wooden rollercoaster, the Great Scenic Railway or for the more adventurous, try the exhilarating rides like the Pharaoh's Curse, Twin Dragon and the G Force. For a more relaxed approach to St Kilda, check out the St Kilda Sea Baths. Famous for its restaurants, bars, sea water pool and day spa.

St Kilda is also home to over 1000 Little penguins. Watch the penguins swim up towards the breakwater and nest in burrows.
