Pricing Guide

Prices featured in accommodation listings are per room for the period specified unless otherwise stated. The 'from' price in the property heading has been calculated using the cheapest nightly rate available, ie. in the lead-in room type, in off-peak season using the longest stay (eg. 7 nights). If a free night offer is available, even if for part of a season, this has been included when calculating the 'from' price. A minimum stay is generally required. Where prices for more than a one night stay are featured, the prices refer to stays of consecutive nights.

Accommodation Ratings

Diamond ratings are used throughout the brochure to describe the standard of accommodation. Properties featuring Diamond symbols do not participate in a recognised rating scheme. The rating is supplied by the individual property based on their own assessment. We recommend they be used as a guide only.

◆	Basic standard of accommodation
◆◆	Budget standard of accommodation
◆◆◆	Comfortable standard of accommodation
◆◆◆◆	Superior standard of accommodation and facilities
◆◆◆◆◆	Deluxe standard of accommodation and facilities
◇	Denotes additional half rating

Apartment/Resort Style Accommodation

In general, self-catering apartments feature cooking facilities with a minimum of microwave, hot plates, saucepans, crockery, cutlery and cooking utensils. Laundry facilities will be located either in the apartment or in a guest laundry within the property. Most apartments provide an initial supply of items such as tea, coffee, toilet paper and soap.

The main island of Tahiti is the gateway to French Polynesia. The best markets in the South Pacific are in Papeete, where everything from local fish and fruit as well as traditional arts and handicrafts can be found. Also in Papeete are chic boutiques and a wide selection of products including black pearl jewellery, woven handbags and traditional pareos painted in bright colours. For the more adventurous there is so much on offer. Scuba dive or snorkel at one of the many dive sites, cruise around the harbour, discover the lagoon by kayak or try your hand at surfing. Discover the Papenoo Valley by quad bike, take a horseback ride or paddle in a Polynesian style outrigger canoe.

The picturesque island of Moorea is set on a crystal clear lagoon with lush green mountains towering overhead. There are many activities to try on the lagoon including water skiing, jet skiing and parasailing. Explore the waterfalls, valleys and the Opunou and Cook Bays or witness the impressive fish and ray feeding demonstrations.

The 'Pearl of the Pacific', Bora Bora has one of the world's most beautiful lagoons. Dive the clear, warm water to witness a large array of multi-coloured fish, manta rays, sharks and wrasses. It's the perfect island for romance. Enjoy your own private paradise by staying in a unique overwater bungalow. Venture outside and relax on the white sandy beaches or on a small island on the outer reef.

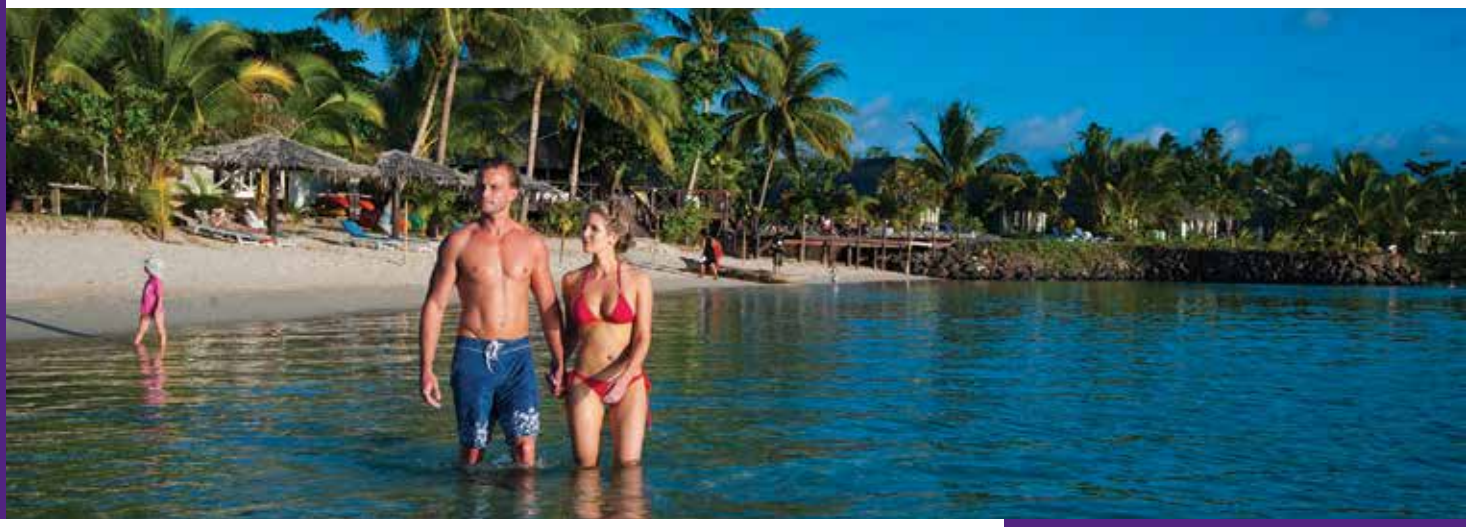
Samoa



The ten islands of Samoa could easily be your top ten must see destinations of the Pacific Islands. Each of Samoa's islands offer something different. See rugged volcanic peaks one day, sparkling lagoons and beaches the next.

The main islands are the ideal spot to perfect your leisure pursuits. Stroll bush trails among the national parks of Upolu. You can't go past the scenery, with lava cliffs that front the ocean and views of the Pacific from Mt Alava. At Piula Cave, swim in an incredible freshwater pool right on the oceanfront or head to the Aleipata district for swimming, snorkelling and even more beachside relaxation. Take a trip to the village of Lotofaga on Upolu, home to the To Sua Ocean Trench. Plunge into the 30 metre deep crater which is filled with crystal clear sea water. At the northern end of Upolu, you can explore the harbour town of Apia.

Those with an appetite for adventure will love Savai'i. This largely uninhabited island will fascinate with its incredible scenery. A roaring jetstream shoots hundreds of metres into the air at the Alofaaga blowholes. At Afu Aau Falls, bathe in a secluded waterhole deep in the jungle. Want more? Seek out the Pulemelei Step Pyramid, a mysterious monument of ancient Samoa. Top it all off with a hike through old plantations and untouched rainforest to volcanic craters that spread lava across the island a century ago. Samoa will leave you with memories for life.

Our Favourites

Go swimming in the cool spring water at Piula Cave Pool, in Lufi-Lufi

Dive into To Sua Ocean Trench, a natural swimming hole

In Saleilua enjoy a picnic overlooking Togitogiga Falls

Visit Robert Louis Stevenson's home and museum

Relax on Upolu's Lalomanu beach

HOW TO GET THERE

Virgin Australia International operates direct flights to Apia (Faleolo Airport) from Brisbane once a week and from Sydney two to three days a week, year round. Connecting flights are available from other Australian cities. A coach and ferry transfer is available from Faleolo Airport to Savai'i, via Mulifanua (Upolu) and Salelologa (Savai'i) wharfs.

TIPPING AND ETIQUETTE

Tipping is not practised or expected, however it will not cause offense. A small gift is just as welcome as a monetary tip for good service. Bargaining is not practised. Bathing suits should not be worn in Apia or in villages.

LANGUAGE

Samoan is the official language. Most people also speak English, which is the language used in business.

American Samoa

Pago Pago

Nestled in the heart of the Pacific Ocean is the Territory of American Samoa, an undiscovered Polynesian paradise just waiting to be explored.

From the moment you first see the islands with their rugged mountain peaks jutting out of the Pacific Ocean covered in lush tropical rainforest, you know you are in for a treat. At the centre of the main island of Tutuila is Pago Pago Harbor, one of the deepest in the Pacific surrounded by three towering majestic mountains, Mount Matafao, Mount Alava and Rainmaker Mountain.

Hike the challenging trails of the National Park of American Samoa or snorkel and dive the superb National Marine Sanctuary of American Samoa. Visit the museum in Fagatogo and view the three moon rocks given to American Samoa by President Nixon from the Apollo 11 Moon Mission. Spend the day on Aunu'u Island and hike the trail that rings the island stopping off at the only quick sand lake found in the Pacific.

Drive to both the eastern and western ends of Tutuila along the shoreline and see Humpback whales breaching and frolicking just a short distance from shore. Fish for marlin and tuna at the Pago Pago Harbor entrance. Visit a US Naval Base and explore the World War II sites and historical naval buildings.

Shoppers will love the range of tax free products available from a wide range of stores. Enjoy the famous Samoan hospitality at the many restaurants around Tutuila. Experience a Fia Fia night where you will enjoy an authentic Samoan feast and cultural show.

Take a guided tour of the world's most accessible active volcano, Yasur

Spend time at the Vanuatu Cultural Centre and Museum in Port Vila

Visit the Epule Village and be entertained by traditional dancers

If your idea of a South Pacific holiday mixes island relaxation with once-in-a-lifetime adventures, then Vanuatu is for you. Villagers open their communities with a welcome that's as warm as the tropical sun. Dine on traditional food, dance to the music of string bands and join villagers in kava drinking as the sun goes down. Master the art of relaxation at day spas or golf the island way on white sand and waterfront.

A harbour city lifestyle of restaurants, watersports and market shopping greets you at Port Vila. Scuba diving, fishing or just strolling on the beach are all enjoyable activities in the Vanuatu capital. If the mood strikes you, walk to the top of Klems Hill, stopping off for a dip in freshwater pools along the way.

One of the more traditional areas, Tanna Island is a haven of adventure and intrigue. Peer into the fiery rim of Yasur volcano. And since you're on an island, you have to take advantage of the water. Swim in underwater caves, snorkel the coral reef or trek inland to incredible waterfalls.

Just when you think you've found the best beaches, more islands challenge your view. Espiritu Santo is a little-known paradise for world class diving, while the island of Pentecost fascinates with its culture. See local tribesmen jump from bamboo towers with vines tied to their ankles between the months of April and June. It's just one of the experiences that makes Vanuatu so exciting.

HOW TO GET THERE Virgin Australia International operates directs flights from Brisbane to Port Vila three days a week. Qantas also operates direct flights from Brisbane and Sydney to Port Vila. Connecting flights are available from other Australian cities. Daily connecting flights from Port Vila to Espiritu Santo and Tanna Island with Air Vanuatu are available.

TIPPING AND ETIQUETTE In accordance with Vanuatu custom, tipping and bargaining are not practised.

LANGUAGE English, French and Bislama (Pidgin English) are the official languages.

Tonga

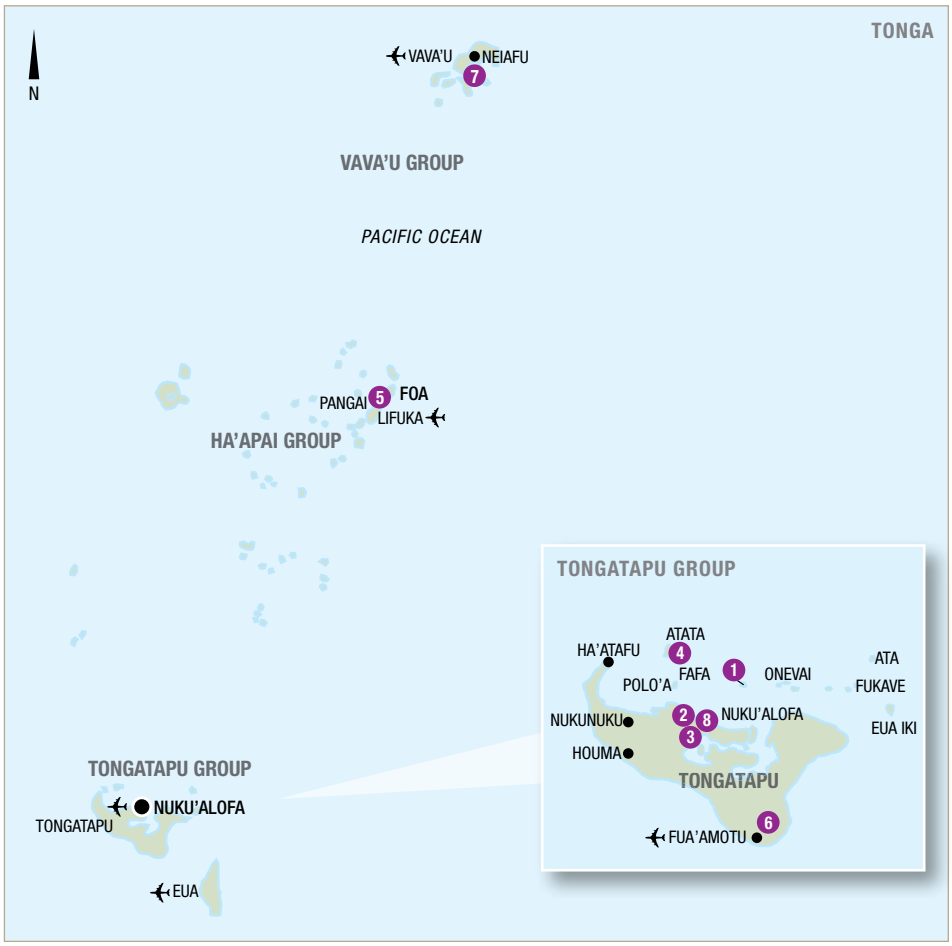
Vava'u

Tonga is a kingdom of white sandy beaches, coconut groves and some of the best fishing in the South Pacific. Make your way around each of the three main island groups for some incredible island experiences. You could find yourself snorkelling with Humpback whales, taking in a traditional dance performance or gaining insights into the local culture with a visit to the local market in each island group.

Tongatapu Island is fit for a king – literally. The royal family lives here in the capital Nuku'alofa. Ready to explore? Seek out the mysterious Ha'amonga a'Maui Trilithon, known as the 'Stonehenge' of the South Pacific. Discover the Anahulu cave, a stalactite cave with an underground swimming pool. Head south to take in the spectacle of the Mapu'a 'a Vaca blowholes.

In the water, snorkelling among coral islands is an unforgettable experience. Divers enter a whole other world at the Ha'apai Islands. Come across whales as you dive among coral reefs or see them from the surface as you kayak through uninhabited islands. The volcanic scenery of Kao and Tofua makes for some spectacular views.

Not to be outdone, the third main group, the Vava'u Islands, are picturesque at every turn. Visitors come from all around to sail tranquil waters among coral reefs. Protected coves make for perfect diving. Find restaurants and bars on Neiafu or stay on the quieter islands where you can master the art of lazing in the sun.



Our Favourites

Hire a kayak for the day to explore the offshore islands

Discover the spectacular ocean blowholes on Tongatapu Island

Snorkel the coral shelf at Sopu and at Popua on Tongatapu Island

Enjoy a sumptuous Tongan feast while watching a traditional dance performance

HOW TO GET THERE

Virgin International Australia operates direct flights from Sydney to Nuku'alofa (Fua'amotu Airport) twice a week. Connecting flights are available from other Australian cities. Real Tonga operates flights to Vava'u and Ha'apai.

TIPPING AND ETIQUETTE

Tipping is not expected, however it will not cause offense if good service is rewarded in this way. Bargaining is not practised. Conservative dress standards apply in Tonga. Tongan law prohibits any person from appearing in a public place without a shirt. Bathing suits should not be worn anywhere but hotel beaches and poolside.

LANGUAGE

Tongan is the official language, however English is widely spoken.
