a true sense of stillness and beauty in the desert landscape

Longitude 131°

Uluru, Northern Territory

Camping certainly doesn't get more glamorous nor the view from the 'tent' more spectacular than this. At Longitude 131°, a gathering of 15 luxury pavilions overlooking fabled icon Uluru, the vibe is intimate and civilised.

The Dune House is a convivial meeting place for lounging, dining, relaxing and swapping stories of desert discoveries. In the spirit of the original pioneers, canopied tent-style pavilions are reborn for the 21st Century as sanctuaries of earthy elegance, with bespoke bed and gourmet stocked bar combining to dispel any lingering sense of roughing it.

The hedonism of the lodge is offset by discovery of the World Heritage Listed wilderness of Uluru-Kata Tjuta with signature guided experiences enabling a true sense of stillness and beauty in the desert landscape, rich in cultural heritage and history.
