Our Favourites

Swim, surf or relax on one of the many surf beaches

Climb Mt Coolum for stunning 360 degree views of the Sunshine Coast

Watch the sunset from Alex Bluff Lookout

Hire a boat and go fishing on the Maroochy River

Shop along the Mooloolaba Esplanade

Coolum and Maroola's untouched beaches seem to go on forever. They're almost hypnotic in their beauty; just gaze out to sea and lose yourself in the beat of the ocean's waves crashing in. Coolum Beach throws up some of the region's best surfing breaks and Maroola is a favourite with the locals.

The heart of the Sunshine Coast, Maroochydore offers a combination of a beach holiday with the feel of a bustling city. Shop at the coast's largest shopping mall, Sunshine Plaza, go fishing in the Maroochy River and dance the night away at one of the many trendy bars.

Alexandra Headland is a surfing hub, anchored by its Surf Club. Here, life revolves around the beach and it's that vibe that draws tourists and locals to this iconic destination. The view from Alex Bluff is a must-see, as is a meal at the Surf Club.

At Mooloolaba you can eat fresh prawns direct from the trawlers, swim safely on the north-facing beach, play a game of beach cricket or relax with a picnic on the foreshore and watch the boats sail by. There's an element of excitement to a Mooloolaba holiday. UnderWater World SEA LIFE at Mooloolaba Wharf lets you view sea creatures up close – you can even swim with seals and sharks! At the Wharf you can go parasailing, scuba diving or take a scenic cruise. There's also a smorgasbord of restaurants serving up fresh local fare.
