TRAVEL TIPS

WHEN TO GO

Depending on what you want to do in Tasmania, there's always a good time to go! This small island boasts a multitude of microclimates including rainforest, mountain and maritime. Depending on where you visit, on any given day, you may need more than one outfit to suit the weather!

Spring and summer are a great time to visit when the weather is milder and more conducive to outdoor activities like hiking. Tasmanian summers have been known to exceed 30 degrees, so watersports like surfing and kayaking are popular during this time, especially along the east coast.

Autumn is a stunning season, when the trees begin to change colour and the falling leaves make colourful carpets. Hiking is particularly popular at this time of year, especially in Cradle Mountain and Freycinet National Parks. Crowds tend to dwindle at this time of year and the lower temperatures during the day make for pleasant outdoor activities.

Winter turns parts of the island into a snowy wonderland and surprisingly, this is a great time for festivals and events like Dark Mofo or for curling up by the fire with a glass of local whisky. Best of all, with the exception of the West Coast and the highlands, rainfall in Tasmania is low year round, so umbrellas and raincoats are not always needed.

EXPERIENCES YOU'LL LOVE

The best part of any journey is the experiences you have along the way, leaving you with memories to relive long after the holiday is over.

Tasmania has countless amazing things to see and do. Here are 10 of our favourites to inspire your wanderlust.

Gordon River

Supplied Courtesy of RACT Destinations

GORDON RIVER

Depart Macquarie Harbour in Strahan, cruise along the majestic Gordon River and delve deep into the Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area. Often shrouded in fog and mist, the shoreline casts a perfect reflection on the river on still days. See Huon Pines at Heritage Landing, some over several thousand years old. The river is also home to the notorious Sarah Island, once a 19th century penal colony and now full of stories of the convicts who called it home.

Port Arthur Historic Site

PORT ARTHUR HISTORIC SITE

This UNESCO Heritage Listed Site is one of the most popular attractions in Tasmania and was once home to one of the most brutal penal colonies in Australia. The immaculately maintained site is best visited with a guide who will explain its fascinating history. Take the short cruise for panoramic views of the site and for the complete experience, join the Isle of the Dead Cemetery tour. Join a guided tour of Port Arthur's island burial ground and learn about the lives of the people who were part of the penal settlement.

Christmas Hills Raspberry Farm, Elizabeth Town

TAMAR TASTING TRAIL

Widely considered to be one of the top 10 wine routes in the world, this 170 kilometre trail takes you to 30 cellar doors through the Tamar Valley and along the Tamar River. Launceston Airport or city is the most popular starting point and the route is clearly marked with yellow and blue signs. It can be done as quickly, or as leisurely, as you like. Visit wineries such as Josef Chromy, Pipers Brook, Jansz and Dalrymple. All offer tastings, some include vineyard tours and of course, all have tasty produce for sale.

BRUNY ISLAND

Bruny Island is an easy day trip from Hobart, showcasing the Cape Bruny Lighthouse, Truganini Lookout, South Bruny National Park as well as a slew of locally crafted delights such as cheese, chocolate, honey, beer and whisky. Jump on a cruise and be on the lookout for seals, dolphins, Sea eagles and maybe even whales. The island is easy enough to navigate if renting a car or alternatively, join a day tour and see it in style! To maximise your experience, consider an extended tour.

FESTIVALS & EVENTS

Tasmanians have a knack of celebrating just about everything. Whether its chocolate, winter or whisky, you can be sure there will be a festival to honour it. A firm favourite is Hobart's Dark Mofo, held yearly in conjunction with the winter solstice. If daytime festivals are more your thing, try MONA FOMA (be sure to stake your claim on one of the signature pink bean bags), the Huon Valley Mid-Winter Festival, Agfest, Devonport Jazz Festival and the Festival of Voices. Chocolate lovers should not miss Chocolate Winterfest, held each winter.

HISTORIC HOBART

Just steps away from the Hobart waterfront lie the historic neighbourhoods of Salamanca and Battery Point. Battery Point is an easy stroll from downtown Hobart and is where you can discover heritage homes on a self-guided walk. Afterwards, grab a drink or meal at the famous Shipwright's Arms Hotel. From here, walk down Kelly's Steps to the towering, sandstone warehouses of Salamanca Place. These buildings have been tastefully converted into galleries, boutiques, restaurants and whisky bars. Salamanca is also home to the popular markets.

MONA

The Museum of Old and New Art (Mona) in Hobart hosts Australia's largest private art collection, including a range of ancient, Egyptian mummies. It's well known for its controversial and thought-provoking artwork. The museum is accessible by car, but perhaps more enjoyable is the 25 minute ferry ride from Brooke Street Pier. Mona is also the home of the annual Dark Mofo celebration where special exhibits, events and concerts are held regularly. After browsing, enjoy lunch or a glass of wine at one of the several dining options or bars.

ANIMAL ENCOUNTERS

Tasmania may be famous for the Tasmanian devil, but the island is also well known for its populations of quolls, wombats, pademelons, seals and penguins. Bicheno is the place to watch cute Little penguins, while Bruny Island is great for spotting seals, dolphins and whales. Wombat lovers should visit the boardwalk at Cradle Mountain, where is not unusual to spot these large marsupials feeding in the tussock grass. To see and learn about devils and quolls, head to Bonorong, Devils @ Cradle or Tasmanian Devil Unzoo™.

TASSIE'S GREAT WALKS

Tasmania is filled with walks and hikes suited to all fitness levels and interests. Some of the most popular walks include Wineglass Bay, Dove Lake Circuit, Cradle Mountain Huts, Three Capes Lodge and the Overland Track. Many tracks have been outfitted with boardwalks for part or the entire way and can be completed either alone or with a guide. A lot of these walks can be completed in a matter of hours and some, such as the popular Cradle Mountain Huts Walk, are completed over several days.

Wineglass Bay

BAY OF FIRES

This coastal paradise spans over 30 kilometres of white, sandy beaches, crystal clear water and iconic, orange-hued boulders that give the region its name. The bay is a popular destination for camping, walking, hiking and watersports. Binalong Bay is the area's main beach and is perfect for swimming, surfing, diving and snorkelling. Anson's Bay Lagoon provides gentle conditions for kayaking, while Anson's Bay is popular for boating and fishing. The area is also known for seafood including fresh oysters.
