It's a coastal escape with a difference on the Eyre Peninsula. Here you can take in white sandy beaches and coastal landscapes as you feast on fresh seafood. Everything from famed Coffin Bay oysters to shellfish, tuna and prawns are on the menu.

It's seafood lover's heaven. Tuck into oysters, mussels, rock lobster, whiting and abalone to see how the area got its reputation as the country's seafood capital. Follow the Seafood & Aquaculture Trail, a self drive route extending around the peninsula that showcases the best in the area.

Choosing a base to explore this brilliant blend of varied landscapes, wildlife, fishing and seafood is easy – it has to be Port Lincoln. This bustling fishing hub boasts a protected harbour three times the size of Sydney Harbour, with a backdrop of green, wooded hills. From here you can fish or sail on Boston Bay, explore the sheltered or surf beaches and tour the seafood and aquaculture industries.

For the truly adventurous, the waters south of Port Lincoln are the place for the ultimate wildlife encounter; cage diving with Great White sharks. In fact, wildlife adventures are all around. Swim with tuna or visit the sea lions at Baird Bay. Spot birdlife at Coffin Bay.

Then when it's time to get going, the road will lead you out to Ceduna and along the Nullarbor Plain, one of Australia's great road journeys.
