Visit Gawler Ranges National Park and Lake Gairdner, a vast salt lake

Taste delicious Coffin Bay oysters

Enjoy a swim with the Australian sea lions or tuna tour

Play golf on the Nullarbor Links Golf Course, the world's longest golf course

It's a coastal escape with a difference on the Eyre Peninsula. Enjoy white sandy beaches and coastal landscapes as you feast on fresh seafood. Tuck into Coffin Bay oysters, mussels, rock lobster, tuna, prawns and abalone to see how the area earnt its reputation as the country's seafood capital. Follow the Eyre Peninsula's Seafood Trail, a self drive route extending around the peninsula that showcases the best in the area.

Choosing a base to explore this brilliant blend of varied landscapes, wildlife, fishing and seafood is easy – it has to be Port Lincoln. This bustling fishing hub boasts a protected harbour three times the size of Sydney Harbour, with a backdrop of green, wooded hills. From here you can fish or sail on Boston Bay, explore the sheltered or surf beaches and tour the seafood and aquaculture industries.

For the truly adventurous, the waters south of Port Lincoln are the place for the ultimate wildlife encounter; cage diving with Great White sharks. In fact, wildlife adventures are all around. Swim with tuna, visit the Australian sea lions at Baird Bay or spot birdlife at Coffin Bay.

Then when it's time to get going, the road will lead you out to Ceduna and along the Nullarbor Plain, one of Australia's great road journeys. As you travel along the Nullarbor Plain, take the time to play golf on the world's longest golf course. The Nullarbor Links 18 hole par 72 golf course is a unique course stretching 1,365 kilometres from Ceduna in South Australia to Kalgoorlie in Western Australia.
A single hole can be played in each participating town or roadhouse along the Eyre Highway, each featuring a tee, a green and a fairway of rugged outback natural terrain, this is a golfer's ultimate experience.
