

The epic journey from coast to coast. The mighty Indian Pacific traverses Australia from coast to coast, between the sparkling waters of the Indian and the Pacific Oceans.

Setting off from Perth, your train climbs through the scenic Avon Valley and into Western Australia's expansive wheat belt before arriving at the first stop in Kalgoorlie. There is plenty to see and do in this historic town with its old pubs, heritage architecture and the extraordinary floodlit Super Pit goldmine. Witness Australia's vast open spaces as you cross the Nullarbor Plain, before a brief stop at Cook, one of the world's most isolated townships with a population of just four.

The city of Adelaide is your next stop and it's here you can choose to break your journey or take an Explore and Discover stop and indulge in an abundance of food, wine and history. Continue on to Broken Hill and learn of the town's mining history on an Explore and Discover stop. Make your way through the spectacular Blue Mountains to your final destination of Sydney.

Whether travelling east to Sydney or west to Perth, make the most of your time and add on one of our fabulous city short break packages to your rail journey.
