Accommodation Ratings

Star and Diamond ratings are used throughout the brochure to describe the standard of accommodation.

STAR RATINGS Properties bearing the Star symbols are independently assessed by Qualmark New Zealand, the official quality agency of Tourism New Zealand and the New Zealand Automobile Association. Travelpoint Holidays has no input into the assessment process.

DIAMOND RATINGS Properties bearing Diamond symbols do not participate in a recognised rating scheme. The rating is supplied by the individual property based on their own assessment. We therefore recommend they be used as a guide only.

◆◆◆ Comfortable standard of accommodation
- ★★★★
◆◆◆◆ High standard of accommodation and facilities

Apartment Style Accommodation

In general, self catering apartments feature cooking facilities with a minimum of microwave, hot plates, saucepans, crockery, cutlery and cooking utensils. Laundry facilities will be located either in the apartment, or in a guest laundry within the property. Most apartments are serviced every 7 days and do not provide hotel facilities such as portage, room service or mini bars. Most apartments provide an initial supply of items such as tea, coffee, soap and toilet paper.

Room Images

Room images featured on property listings are the lead-in room type, unless captioned otherwise.

What the Symbols mean

-  Day spa facilities are available.
-  The property has one or more rooms providing wheelchair access with assistance.
-  A bonus is available if you are celebrating a special occasion (eg. honeymoon). Advise your travel agent when booking. The definition of 'special occasion' and type of bonus offered is at each property's discretion. Conditions may apply.

Pricing Guide

Prices featured in accommodation listings are per room for the period specified unless otherwise stated. The "from" price in the property heading has been calculated using the cheapest nightly rate available, ie. in the lead-in room type, in off-peak season using the longest stay (eg. 7 nights). If a free night offer is available, even if for part of a season, this has been included when calculating the "from" price. A minimum stay is generally required. Where prices for more than a one night stay are featured, the prices refer to stays of consecutive nights. We are always sourcing great deals throughout the year, so we recommend you use the prices in this brochure as a guide and ask your travel agent for the best available deal when booking.

North Island

Lose yourself in the rich culture, natural wonder and unmatched beauty of New Zealand. Two islands of new experiences are there waiting to be explored.

Visit Auckland and enjoy a city boasting exquisite food and wine, exciting shopping and a vibrant night life before sailing off for an adventure at a nearby island such as Waiheke Island, Rangitoto Island or Rakino Island. They're all within easy reach and serve up everything from tranquil beaches and boutique wineries to fast-paced adventures.

Discover the scenic beauty of the North Island as you wander the stunning white beaches of the Coromandel Peninsula or cycle through picturesque wine villages in the Hawke's Bay region. You never know what you might find once you start to explore.

New Zealand is a place unlike anywhere else on earth, visit Rotorua and see first hand the awesome raw power of a truly unique geothermal wonderland. Discover bubbling mud pools and steaming geysers or take an afternoon dip in a healing mineral spring. The people of New Zealand open up their traditions to visitors with pride. Immerse yourself in the culture and learn about the rich history of the Maori people. See native weaponry displays and live performances of the haka or chat with expert carvers and weavers.

Pick up the pace with an exhilarating jet boat ride through soaring river canyons near Huka Falls or mountain biking, native bush walking or trout fishing at Lake Taupo. If it's a full itinerary of sightseeing you are up for, you're well and truly covered.

The beauty of the North Island is in its diversity. Soak it up as you enjoy a day around the sparkling bay of Wellington Harbour, discover the cultural heritage of this fascinating country at Te Papa national museum or visit a boutique vineyard in the beautiful Wairarapa region.

An adventurous spirit needs to be well fed. Luckily on the North Island, wherever you go, food and wine are top priorities. Enjoy the specialities of each region such as the fresh produce of Northland, Taranaki's seafood splendour, the gourmet cheeses, honey and wines of Hawke's Bay or Marlborough's famous Pinot Noir wines. Whether it's a café lunch and a spot of shopping after you hop off the ferry from Auckland to Devonport, a traditional hangi feast and Maori concert in Rotorua or dinner by the water in Wellington, the North Island ensures a gourmet adventure with unique flavours to delight your tastebuds.

South Island

New Zealand's South Island earns its reputation as a holiday fun zone. Base yourself in Queenstown for an adventure menu of jet boating, skiing, golf, four wheel driving and any number of thrilling pursuits. If it's fun and it's meant for the outdoors, you'll find it here.

For an adrenaline packed experience, take a helicopter flight around the Mount Cook region, enjoy the alpine scenery and up close views of Fox Glacier and Tasman Glacier or join a hiking tour on the spectacular Franz Josef Glacier.

If a slower pace is more your style, head for the coast and make a day of it wandering gardens or touring seaside villages such as the historic fishing village of Riverton in the south. Visit the city of Christchurch to see the historic buildings, stunning parks and gardens and surrounding natural beauty of the Canterbury Plains. Cruise the serene waters of Milford Sound and view stunning scenery including waterfalls, or get a taste of the French colonial past in Akaroa before sampling local arts and crafts.

Taste the gourmet flavours of the largest wine growing region in New Zealand; Marlborough, renowned for its world famous Sauvignon Blanc, or treat your tastebuds to fresh seafood including crayfish and paua at Kaikoura. No matter what your culinary choice, there's something to satisfy everyone's palate.

Wildlife is a big drawcard on the South Island. Go whale watching any time of the year and see dolphins and penguins off the coast at Kaikoura, where the mountain landscape meeting the sea makes for truly spectacular sights. Bird watching is another popular pursuit for those with a keen eye, see the world's only mainland albatross colony as well as other sea birds on the Otago Peninsula. And if you're lucky enough to join a snorkelling tour, you can get up close to some of the country's cutest residents, the fur seals.

Picturesque doesn't even begin to describe the beauty of the South Island of New Zealand. From golden sandy beaches to jagged remote coastline, expansive rolling plains to snow capped mountain vistas, lush wilderness and rainforest to clear pristine fiords and glaciers. Be amazed by each new outlook as the landscape becomes increasingly impressive and diverse as you travel through the natural wonder that is New Zealand.

Our Favourite Experiences

The Classics

New Zealand's diverse and interesting culture is a huge part of its appeal. The traditional Maori and Polynesian cultures blend with European influences in cosmopolitan cities and historic out of the way villages.

See the world's best collection of Maori treasures at the Auckland War Memorial Museum and be treated to a welcome dance, weaponry display and haka. See unique and vibrant Maori arts and crafts and enjoy a traditional hangi meal in Rotorua. At Te Papa in Wellington, get an insight into New Zealand's cultural past and present. In the south, a self-drive tour of South Canterbury will reveal Maori rock art and stunning Victorian and Edwardian architecture. The French influence is very much evident in seaside Akaroa, with French street names and French cuisine, whilst Dunedin displays a rich Scottish heritage and boasts New Zealand's only castle.

Walks

New Zealand is made for walking. How else are you going to get close enough to appreciate the views from the waterfront in Wellington, or the giant kauri trees of the rainforest in Northland? Add to the list the 26 kilometre Rotorua Walkway the Queenstown Hill Time Walk and glacial walks on the West Coast.

In fact, make sure your walking shoes are in good order for any part of New Zealand.

For something a bit more substantial, there are no walks on earth quite like the nine Great Walks of New Zealand, including the Kepler, Routeburn, Milford and Abel Tasman Coastal Tracks. Treks from three to five days in length can take you from ridgelines to coastlines, from native bush to glaciers, from watching seals to spotting kiwis and are sure to refresh the mind and rejuvenate the soul.

Sport and Adventure

If you're going to get the adrenaline pumping, New Zealand's the place to do it. The choices could fill the most energetic traveller's schedule several times over. Start with a picnic on a volcano in Auckland, or abseiling, swimming and rock sliding in the nearby Waitakere Ranges. Test your limits with a Sky Jump from Auckland's Sky Tower, a 192 metre cable-controlled base jump thrill.

In picturesque Wellington, be whisked skyward in a cable car, taking in views of the city and harbour. Mountain bike through the bush of Makara Peak or get your skates on to zoom around Oriental Bay.

For a real kick, tour live volcanoes around Rotorua. Take the four wheel drive to the crater's edge or tackle a jet boat ride in the geothermal valley of Orakei Korako. Catch the gondola to the top of Mount Ngongotaha and luge back down or climb inside a giant ball and experience the thrill of zorbing 150 metres downhill.

The action continues in the south. Soar above the plains of Christchurch in a hot air balloon or go whale watching off the coast. Consider things you never thought you'd be brave enough to do – like skydiving!

This September and October, the eyes of the world will be on New Zealand for the Rugby World Cup. With 20 competing nations playing in 11 locations throughout the country, rugby fans are sure to be well entertained both on and off the field.

For skiing, the fields around Queenstown and Wanaka offer the best snow. Find adventure at every turn from the famed skiing and snowboarding to the heart-pumping thrill of a bungy jump. New Zealand makes anything possible.

Food and Wine

The great thing about wining and dining your way around New Zealand is that you can enjoy it in such beautiful settings.

Sample a Polynesian feast in multicultural Auckland or spend an afternoon sampling wines at a hillside vineyard. Pick up some locally grown hazelnuts and olive oil north of Christchurch, or near Queenstown tour the Central Otago region, stopping for sensational stone fruit and a few tasty treats from the cheese factory.

Create a winery tour of New Zealand through the Wairarapa region near Wellington, the boutique wine village of Martinborough or the famous Marlborough region.

With so much coastline, seafood is fresh and expertly prepared. Specialties include scallops, green lipped mussels, and the biggest oysters known around the world – the Bluff oyster. Fish for your own dinner or let the chefs prepare you something special.
