

Canberra

Discover the home of Australia's stories in the nation's capital, Canberra. Beyond the iconic 'house on the hill' otherwise known as Parliament House, you'll find experiences showcasing Australia's history, culture and lifestyle. Commemorate, reflect and remember at the moving Australian War Memorial or be inspired by the strength, skill and commitment required by elite athletes at the Australian Institute of Sport. Marvel at the world's largest collection of Australian Indigenous art at the National Gallery of Australia or visit during spring to see more than one million flowers bloom on cue at Australia's celebration of spring, the Floriade festival.

There's so much for everyone to see in Canberra. Kids can spend hours at the science-themed Questacon while impressive displays captivate at the National Museum. Meet-a-cheetah at the National Zoo and Aquarium or grab a mountain bike for a thrilling ride down Mount Stromlo. A network of parks and reserves with walking trails and cycleways is the perfect way to explore at a slower pace. Canberra's newest outdoor attraction is the National Arboretum Canberra featuring 100 forests and 100 gardens spread over 250 hectares, stunning views of the city and a nature themed playground.

Feeling hungry? Then get set to tempt your tastebuds. Bistro-style cafés and quality quick eats blend perfectly with stylish restaurants and sleek high-end dining experiences. Kingston, Manuka and nearby suburbs in the inner south have many fantastic options. The NewActon dining precinct is one of the most exciting places to eat, while Dickson offers a small flourishing Chinatown and much more.

Even a day out shopping is a chance to explore more of the city. Canberra's flourishing weekend markets offer locally designed and produced goods while shopping malls, boutiques and key precincts offer brand names plus plenty of hidden gems. Retail hot spots can be found at Lonsdale Street in Braddon and in Manuka and Kingston.

The countryside surrounding Canberra beckons with more than 33 wineries, historic townships and beautiful coastline. If you still have time, use Canberra as a base to explore the nearby Snowy Mountains and sparkling South Coast – both are a little over a two hour drive from the city centre.
