

It's another world on Lord Howe Island. A place where cycling is the main form of transport and rugged volcanic peaks contrast with lush forests and serene lagoons. They go to great lengths to make sure Lord Howe stays so flawless. Less than 300 people live here and visitors are limited to 400, so you know you'll have plenty of room to enjoy yourself. No crowded beaches here, just scenic walking trails through palm forests, incredible views from cliff top outlooks, and a cocktail waiting for you as you gaze across the sea to the sunset at the end of the day. All this within two hours flight of Sydney or Brisbane.

This is the kind of place you'll want to come back to again and again. Calm ocean surfaces are a dream to explore in a canoe. Take a dip in the surf off Blinky Beach or simply float in The Lagoon. For the adventurous, there are challenging hikes to tackle or more leisurely walks under forest canopies. Some of the Pacific's best dive sites are a short boat ride away. But there's plenty to see just by wading in off the beach with your snorkel. At Ned's Beach, you can feed fish up to a metre long, or try catching one offshore from one of the local sports fishing boats. The island is home to unique and rare flora and fauna. It's a birdwatcher's paradise, with more than a dozen species of sea birds coming here to breed.
