

The Rocks and Circular Quay

It's where you'll find two of Sydney's biggest icons, but there's more to The Rocks and Circular Quay district than the Sydney Harbour Bridge and Opera House. Great dining, galleries and museums, boutiques and speciality shops are other worthy drawcards.

The Rocks is Sydney's historic old town quarter, bursting with a colourful history dating back to convict days. It's a maze of sandstone lanes and courtyards, early 19th century warehouses and terraces just waiting to be explored. Nearby Circular Quay is the doorway to Sydney Harbour and all that comes with it. The Quay is a bustling place with ferries leaving every few minutes to Manly, Watsons Bay, Mosman or Taronga Zoo.

Get your fix of shopping at the weekend Rocks Markets or culture at the Museum of Contemporary Art. Walk the harbour foreshore or take a guided walk to learn the secrets of a colourful convict past. Find some of Sydney's oldest pubs like the Fortune of War, Hero of Waterloo, Lord Nelson and the Orient, or discover Sydney's taste for fine dining at Rockpool or Guillaume at Bennelong. Choose to stay in a fully restored Heritage Listed building or live it up in five star luxury.

When the sun starts to go down, you'll be spoilt for choice – climb the Harbour Bridge and watch from above, take to the water on a harbour cruise or take in a show at the Opera House.
