Our Favourites

Treat yourself to fresh fish and Clyde River oysters

Drive the Grand Pacific Drive

See water shooting up to 60 metres in the air from the Kiama Blowhole

Visit Mogo Zoo, south of Batemans Bay, to see rare and endangered animals

Uncrowded beaches, crystal clear waters and more than 30 national parks make the South Coast a favourite with those seeking relaxation among unspoilt wilderness.

If it's spectacular scenery you're after, Wollongong delivers. Just 90 minutes drive from Sydney, travel via the Grand Pacific Drive and take in the breathtaking coastline perfectly framed by its mountain backdrop. Soak up the city's culture and heritage at galleries, memorials and temples.

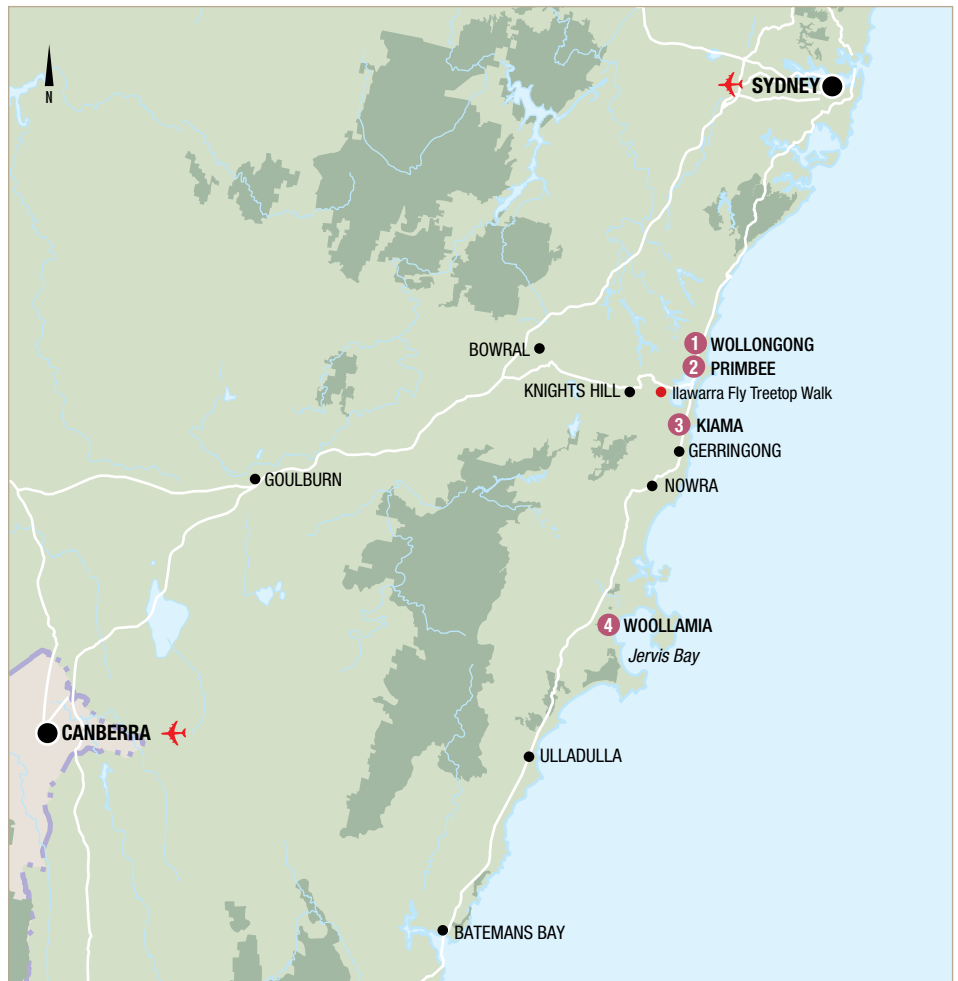

Further south is the coastal paradise of Kiama. Famous for its blowhole and surfing beaches, there's a casual atmosphere and a beach for everyone.

For outdoor fun at the beach you can't beat Gerringong. Surf the point breaks at Werri Beach, one of the best surfing beaches on the South Coast. Seven Mile Beach is great for fishing and a favourite with the locals. Be sure to sample the wines at Crooked River Winery and look around the Gerringong Heritage Museum.

The Shoalhaven region delivers more pristine beaches and beautiful national parks. Some of the whitest sand in the world can be found at Hyams Beach in Jervis Bay. Batemans Bay is another family favourite where you can mix your beach holiday with fascinating national parks.
