

Bondi Icebergs

Sydney is home to some of the most hospitable and picturesque beaches in Australia. From rolling surf, miles of sand and an abundance of relaxed beachside dining, Sydney's beaches have it all and more.

Set your sights on world famous Bondi. The quintessential Aussie beach culture plays out in front of you at the home of great surf and good food. Browse Bondi's famous Sunday Markets or get your retail fix exploring the funky boutiques along Bondi Road. Ravesi's is the place to go for a drink opposite Bondi Beach, or head up to Icebergs Dining Room and Bar for celebrity spotting and spectacular ocean views.

Lovely Coogee is a haven for couples and families alike, with a great surf beach and protected marine reserve. Almost as famous as Coogee beach are two iconic Sydney pubs – Coogee Bay Hotel and Coogee Palace.

See a few hidden gems on the scenic coastal cliff walk between Bondi and Coogee via Tamarama and Bronte. From safe swimming beaches to a close encounter with the little penguins at the Marine Reserve or perhaps even a surf lesson, there's plenty of opportunities to wet your feet in Manly. Kids will love the giant Waterworks slides, a day at Manly SEA LIFE Sanctuary or spending time strolling Manly's famous Corso to discover the largest concentration of surf shops in the Southern Hemisphere.

For a beach as long as the eye can see, Narrabeen in Sydney's north will provide your pleasure. There are four actual beaches, all with surf clubs, along the stretch, so there's no difficulty finding your own place to play. Still water activities can be had on the huge Narrabeen Lakes. The Narrabeen Village Markets are also provide a great day out.
