

New South Wales

Mungo National Park

There's so much to discover in New South Wales. The scenery alone will get you hooked, from national parks full of wildlife to the mountains and a coastline fit for endless seaside exploration.

There are certain things you've come to expect from an Australian holiday. The bush, with its lush pockets of rainforest and ideal walking trails for an afternoon outdoors, and the outback, rugged, undiscovered and distinct to this country we love. Find it all in New South Wales.

Blue Mountains

A heady mix of towering canyon landscapes and pristine forest awaits you in the Blue Mountains. A short trip out of Sydney, find an adventure traveller's paradise where a day out could mean anything from an afternoon in the four wheel drive, bush walking, fishing, canoeing or just sitting back and taking in the stunning views. Once you find Blue Mountain Private Safaris you may want to keep it all to yourself. The secluded bush camp is the place to go for a bush safari with a touch of style. Camp in a luxury swag under the stars and wake to a gourmet feast, native animals and a tour on foot or by canoe with an expert guide.

Outback

Whether it's the heritage homes and quirky characters of Broken Hill, ancient archaeological remains or lunar landscapes, the outback is sure to capture your imagination. Be inspired by the outback and experience 'Corner Country' where Queensland, New South Wales and South Australia meet. Broken Hill has grown from a bustling mining town to a mecca for artists and any number of creative pursuits. At Mungo National Park, discover a trove of archaeological treasures, from 40,000 year old human remains and artefacts and the dramatic sculptured 33 kilometre stretch of sand dunes, the Walls of China.

South Coast

The New South Wales South Coast is beautiful from any angle. Survey the full extent of Jervis Bay with its white beaches that lead to bush. Take in the impressive rock formations and forests that draw you in. Underwater, see an amazing world of caves and spot sharks, cuttlefish and gropers.

Camping is a great way to get in some time outdoors, but who says you have to rough it? Take a unique approach and stay at luxury bush retreat Paperbark Camp. Sleep in, wake up to beautiful bush scenery and spend the day swimming at the beach or walking in the mangrove forest before an afternoon rest on the verandah. Now that's the way to do it.

Guided Experiences

Blue Mountains Private Safaris

Blue Mountains National Park
The forested valleys and sandstone escarpments of the Blue Mountains are the setting for an immersive wildlife experience and some of Australia's most stunning wilderness scenery, all on Sydney's doorstep. The ranges provide some of the most spectacular bush walks and vistas in Australia.

Blue Mountains Private Safari's private camp is located on the banks of the Wollondilly River amidst eucalypt and casuarina trees. The best way to experience this region is in the company of a local guide with intimate knowledge of the bush to reveal its secrets. Guests are provided with exclusive use of the swag camp, whether it is for 1 or 6 guests, and are provided total attention of the guide.

While the focus of your experience is in the bush around you, a few wild bush luxury touches ensure a few key comforts; great bedding, an ensuite bush bathroom and great food and wine served on the banks of the river or by the camp fire. The bed is a swag mounted on a cushioned timber platform with thick mattresses and quality linen.

All safaris are tailored to suit guests' interests, with some of the activities available including 4WD touring, kayaking, fly fishing, bush walking, wine tasting and heritage tours.

- PROPERTY FEATURES:
- Private use swag camp ■ 3 swag decks

5 Day Classic Corner Country Adventure

- HIGHLIGHTS:
- Broken Hill
 - Milparinka
 - Tibooburra
 - Sturt National Park
 - Cameron Corner
 - White Cliffs
 - Mutawintji National Park

Day 1: Broken Hill
Make your own way to Broken Hill and be met by your Corner Country Adventure Tours host for your transfer to your accommodation. Overnight in Broken Hill.

Day 2: Broken Hill to Tibooburra
Travel north towards the remote 'Corner Country'. Hear tales and legends of this great land and gain your first experience of the outback – our special heritage. After lunch, head towards the tiny town of Milparinka and historic Depot Glen. Continue to Tibooburra, the most remote town in New South Wales. After dinner spend some time star-gazing. Overnight in Tibooburra. (BLD)

Day 3: Sturt National Park and Cameron Corner
Wake to the sound of outback silence. After breakfast, travel through spectacular Sturt National Park. Continue through stunning red sandhill country to the dingo fence and Cameron Corner where South Australia, Queensland and New South Wales meet. Take the opportunity and time to learn about a very special part of the Australian bush. Capture the spirit of Corner Country and see kangaroos, emus and birdlife by the hundreds. Return to Tibooburra your overnight stay. (BLD)

Day 4: Tibooburra to White Cliffs
From Tibooburra head southeast to the opal fields of White Cliffs, enjoying lunch en route at one of the many beautiful dry creeks which cross the countryside. White Cliffs is a unique small community which lives underground. The thousands of shafts drilled by optimistic miners create an eerie, lunar landscape. After dinner, the evening is at leisure. Perhaps spend some time star gazing the breathtakingly clear outback night skies. Accommodation tonight is at the Underground Motel. (BLD)

Day 5: White Cliffs to Mutawintji National Park to Broken Hill
Visit underground museums and galleries, explore White Cliffs and perhaps fossick for your own piece of opal. Travel to Mutawintji National Park, a place of dramatic scenery, prolific birdlife, crystal clear rock pools and ancient Aboriginal art. Enjoy a guided tour of the restricted Historic Site to view the Aboriginal hand stencils and rock engravings. Lunch in the national park before returning to Broken Hill to be transferred to your departure point. (BL)

- INCLUDES:
- 4 nights accommodation
 - Meals as indicated (B = light breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner)
 - Return transfers from Broken Hill Railway Station
